Description of excursions

✓ EXCURSION TO THE GRANADIAN ALPUJARRA

Come and discover one of the richest botanical sites in Europe, with the possibility of walking through typical picturesque villages in a beautiful mountainous landscape.

The Alpujarra is a large valley that flows through the foothills of the southern hills of the Sierra Nevada, the mountains of Lújar and Contraviesa, the Mediterranean coast and the Sierra de Gádor. Here you will have the opportunity to come across white palaces located on a level plateau, famous for the snow-covered peaks.

The first stop will take place in the Lanjarón structure dating back to the 19th century, then continue towards Órgiva, as well as the crossroads of the region and capital of the Alpujarra. From this point we will head towards Cartuñas, Pampaneira, Pitres and Trevélez, one of the highest in Spain and famous for its delicious Iberian hams.

Through Bubión you will arrive at Capileira, the picturesque white country where we can admire the beautiful panorama.

✓ EXCURSION TO NERJA + FRIGILIANA (TROPICAL COAST)

Enjoy a whole day at the Mediterranean Sea and visit the beautiful city of Nerja, the balcony of Europe and the city's picturesque streets. Afterwards we will visit the caves of Nerja, an archeological site that is part of the historical patrimony of Spain. In the afternoon we'll go into the Sierra of Málaga and visit the village Frigiliana, which is said to be one of the most beautiful villages in whole Spain.

✓ EXCURSION TO CORDOBA

Spend a day exploring the city of Cordoba, famous for its rich history and architectural heritage. Walk through the arches of the famous Mezquita, leave on the streets of the Jewish Quarter and fill your day of colors in the Calle de las Flores. Enter into the heart of Andalucía, and see an ancient city 'full of intellectual wealth, vibrant history and architectural triumphs. During the excursion we will have the opportunity to dig into the layers of time and to observe the different cultures that have led to this place as unique and remarkable.

The introduction to the city will not be complete without a visit to the famous Mezquita, where you can lose yourself in a sea of arches.

There are few cities in the world that can claim to have been the capital of a Roman province, an Arab state and a footballer, but it is this heir who has raised Cordoba to Heritage of Humanity.

✓ EXCURSION TO SEVILLA

Together with a local guide you can discover the most emblematic sites of the historic center of Seville and learn about the legends that are told about those places. Visit the city hall and the Plaza de Triunfo, where you can find three buildings that have been declared UNESCO World Heritage: the Cathedral with the Giralda, the Real Alcázar and the Archivo General de Indias.

Alcázar of Seville

The Alcázar is one of the most important and emblematic monuments of Seville, Spain and the Mediterranean culture in general. In 1987 it was declared World Heritage by the UNESCO.

Seville Cathedral

The Cathedral of Seville is the largest Gothic cathedral and the third largest church in the world. In 1987 it was registered by UNESCO as a Heritage of Humanity. This cathedral houses the most important picture of the Christian world: it is a giant piece of art that began in 1482 and ended in 1564. On the left of Capilla Real is the entrance of the wonderful Arabian minaret, La Giralda, which is nowadays used as a bell tower of the cathedral. Come on, it is worth climb to the top!
